

FINANCIAL SERVICES GUIDE

The purpose of this document:

This Financial Services Guide 'FSG', authorised by Independent Financial Advisers Australia Pty Ltd (AFSL 464629), is a document that we are required by law to provide to you to inform you of basic matters, prior to providing you with financial advice.

If we provide you with any advice, you will receive a Statement of Advice (in writing) which takes into account your objectives, financial situation and needs. The Statement of Advice will contain the advice, the basis on which it is given and information about fees, interests and associations which may have influenced the provision of the advice.

If a 'financial product' is recommended to you we will provide you with a Product Disclosure Statement containing information about the particular product, which will enable you to make an informed decision in relation to the acquisition of that product.

This document details:

- Who your adviser is and details of the Australian Financial Services Licensee
- The services that we are authorised to offer
- How we are paid (as well as any other relevant parties)
- Details of any potential conflicts of interest
- How to make a complaint if you need to
- Other important issues

Who will be providing advice to you and through what licence

Corporate Authorised Representative ("CAR"):	The Trustee of the Esskay Family Trust, and the trustee for the Deebee Family Trust. Brocktons Independent Advisory is the nominee for this partnership.
ABN:	24 391 135 357
Authorised representative number:	464629

The services your CAR is authorised to offer

- Investment and wealth creation advice
- Retirement planning
- Risk assessment and management
- Life insurance broking
- Mortgage and Debt Management advice
- Financial planning following redundancy
- Estate planning and business succession planning
- Asset protection advice
- Superannuation advice
- Salary packaging and tax planning
- Portfolio monitoring and reviews

A combination of personal and general advice is offered on these services. Please note that while your CAR can provide advice on debt management strategies, it is not licensed to engage in credit activities such as providing credit contracts or leases, securing obligations under credit contracts, or other credit provision services. If necessary we will refer you to a reputable mortgage broker for these types of services.

Your CAR is not licenced to provide a tax agent service. Recommendations are made subject to the concurring advice from a registered tax practitioner who can advise on your individual tax implications, and if you instruct us we will arrange for you to get this advice. For instance, we are aware that tax laws exist like the Capital Gains Tax Act, the Franking Credits Act, the Superannuation Tax Act, to name a few. However legislation requires that only someone licenced to provide a tax agent service is permitted to:

- ascertain liabilities, obligations or entitlements of an entity that arise, or could arise, under a taxation law; or
- advise an entity about liabilities, obligations or entitlements of the entity or another entity that arise, or could arise, under a taxation law.

Your CAR is authorised to give advice on the following types of product:

- Deposit products and debentures
- Unit trusts, hedge funds, bank accounts, term deposits and cash management trusts
- Listed investment companies and exchange traded funds
- Listed and unlisted property trusts and syndicates
- Fixed interest securities, preference shares, debentures and mortgage trusts
- Listed shares
- Master trusts and wrap accounts
- Retail, industry and self-managed superannuation funds (SMSFs)
- Retirement savings accounts
- Managed investment schemes
- Life, trauma, total and permanent disability, income protection and business expenses insurance.

How your CAR is paid (as well as any other relevant parties)

Brocktons does not charge asset fees nor receive commissions without rebating them in full to our client. We charge a fee for service which is an hourly rate (currently $330 an hour including GST) or a contractually agreed fixed price.

The cost of the advice will be proportional to the skill and knowledge required for the type of work, the degree of responsibility applicable to the work and the time required to prepare your Statement of Advice. This agreement will be documented in a Retainer Agreement and payment is required when we are retained. Payment can be made via credit card by completing a form (charges apply) or by direct debit from a nominated account of your choice. Payments are made to our licensee Independent Financial Advisers Australia Pty Ltd (IFA-AUST). We do not accept cash.

Details of any potential conflicts of interest

Neither Brocktons nor IFA-AUST has any ownership or contractual links with any financial product manufacturer that could restrict or unduly influence its advice. We have no incentive to recommend the product of one institution over another.

In providing advice and service to its clients Brocktons retains the services of other professionals from time to time. This includes accountants, auditors, solicitors, insurance advisers and other independent consultants. Brocktons does not receive referral fees to any party for referring clients to them.

If Brocktons pays a referral fee to a third party, it will not be contingent on the client following the advice and those fees will be disclosed to the client in a statement of advice (SoA).

How to make a complaint if you need to

If you have any complaint about the service provided to you, you should take the following steps:

1. Contact your adviser and talk to him/her about your complaint.
2. If your adviser is not able to resolve your complaint satisfactorily within 5 business days, please put your complaint in writing and send it to Independent Financial Advisers Australia Pty Ltd at PO Box 2088, Woden ACT 2606. We will try to resolve your complaint quickly and fairly.
3. If you still do not get a satisfactory outcome by 30 days from the day you lodge your complaint, you have the right to forward your complaint to an external dispute resolution scheme. Independent Financial Advisers Australia Pty Ltd is a member of The Australian Financial Complaints Authority (AFCA).

Other important issues...

Standard of advice

The advice that you will receive will be suitable to your needs and financial circumstances. To provide this service we need to find out your individual objectives, financial situation and needs before we recommend any financial products or services to you.

You have the right not to divulge this information to us, if you do not wish to do so. In that case, we are required to warn you about the possible consequences of not having your full personal information. You should read the warnings carefully.

Code of Ethics

As Financial Advisers, we are bound by the Code of Ethics published by The Financial Adviser Standards and Ethics Authority. This code comprises the values and standards that shape and reinforce the profession of Financial Planning. The Code and the Standards within it guide our conduct and enhance our engagement with our clients as well as wider society. For more information on the Code see <https://www.fasea.gov.au/code-of-ethics/>. If you have an ethical concern, please contact our "Ethical Standards Officer" at admin@ifa-aust.com.au.

Risks of financial products or strategies recommended to you

We will explain to you any significant risks of financial products and strategies, which we recommend to you. If we do not do so, or you do not understand the information provided, you should ask us to clearly explain those risks to you.

Privacy of client information

We maintain a record of your personal profile, which includes details of your objectives, financial situation and needs. We also maintain records of any recommendations made to you.

We are committed to implementing and promoting a privacy policy that will ensure the privacy and security of your personal information. A copy of that privacy policy is available on request.

If you wish to examine your file, you should ask us, and we will make arrangements for you to do so.

Instructions from you

You can provide us with instructions and instruct us to buy or sell your financial products by telephone, letter, or other means such as email.
